Technology Sales Consulting

Has your company cut back on travel and gone to web based sales presentations? Has this been effective? Was your sales department properly trained on how to transition to the medium of web based sales presentations? Are your customers tuning out your sales presentations? Vedauwoo will evaluate your sales team's presentations and provide feedback, training and consulting designed to boost your sales while still saving on travel expenses.

Services range from evaluating a canned sales presentation to evaluating each sales team member. Vedauwoo will give you specific feedback designed to engage the customer and close the sale. Vedauwoo can also customize and deliver training to your sales force based on the findings of the evaluation. Contact Vedauwoo now and stop losing sales today.
